Escorted by history

Take a different look at Barcelona, through it's rich and stylish history and architecture!

day 1 A City View

Start with a great overview of the city as a whole with a panoramic 3 hour tour, including a bird's eye view from Montjuich Mountain with the Olympic Rings. Then enjoy some free time to explore on your own.

day 2 Gaudí Tour

Today is devoted to discovering one of the architectural styles that Barcelona is most famous for – Modernist. When you think of Modernist, you automatically think of Gaudi, an architectural genius whose work has become a symbol of Barcelona all over the world. You'll see the Sagrada Familia, still unfinished but one of his greatest works, as well as the Casa Mila, better known as 'La Pedrera,' located in the Eixample district and now declared a part of the Heritage of Mankind by UNESCO. The Eixample district is one of the most unique models of urban planning in Europe.

Staying in the Eixample district next stop is the Casa Batlló, considered one of the most appealing houses with it's unique façade, ceramic roof and spectacular interior. Then stroll through Park Güell, a public park covering 20 hectares with it's enormous square supported by 96 columns and dotted with curved benches to make it an English style garden.

To complete the day, it's off to a restaurant to sample a wide selection of local Catalan dishes, including one of the most typical, toasted bread with tomatoes and virgin olive oil.

day 3 More of Barcelona

For the last journey on our cultural highway, we'll go to the famous Gothic Quarter, with its narrow streets full of history, where you can still see the influence of all the cities' past cultures. Marvel at the Roman, Jewish and Gothic architectural styles, plus don't miss the chance to wander around the Ramblas, a fantastic bustling boulevard, always full of people and decorated with colourful flower stands. Take in the 13th century Cathedral with its magnificent cloister and the Gran Teatre del Liceu, one of the largest opera houses in the world, located at the heart of the Ramblas and considered one of the symbols of the city. Then it's back to the airport.
