

SPAIN TOURS - GROUP PACKAGES: BARCELONA LANDSCAPES TOUR

take it to the max in barcelona!

Group travel

Landscapes and nature reserves

Discover the natural side of Barcelona with its beautiful countryside, stunning landscapes and nature reserves.

day 1 The first contact

Straight to the hotel for a group dinner.

day 2 Treasure hunt

The adventure begins right after breakfast with a variety of outdoor events. Get to know your team members with a 'treasure hunt' style challenge, testing your orienteering skills over different natural terrains in a 4 x 4. Then it's war!! Get ready with your weapons for a paintball battle between the teams – building your energy back up along the way with lunch in a local restaurant.

It's back to the hotel at the end of the day, with an optional dinner.

day 3 The Ebre delta

It's back to nature with a trip to one of the most important parks in Catalonia – the Delta de L'Ebre. Located at the mouth of the Ebre river in the southern Catalan counties of Montsia and Baix Ebre, this enormous wetlands covers nearly 8,000 ha. It's considered the most important aquatic habitat, not just of Catalonia, but of the Mediterranean and offers incredible contrasts from its sandy beaches to paddy fields and lakes.

Lunch is provided and dinner an option at the hotel

day 4 The "Holy" mountain

It may be the last day, but before we go back to the airport there's another highlight not to be missed – Montserrat. Declared a national park in 1987, this imposing rocky outcrop is considered a holy mountain and is home to the image of the Black Virgin of Montserrat, the patron saint of the Catalan region.

The monastery is seen as the spiritual center of the Catalan people and boasts the oldest surviving choir school in Europe. Your visit wouldn't be complete without a chance to hear the boys' choir in action.

There's the additional option to take the "Cremallera" train to the monastery, to get a better view of the spectacular scenery.
