It's sport time!

Love sports? Then this 2 day trip to Barcelona is just the ticket.

day 1 Barcelona tour

First get your bearings and see all that this great city can offer with a panoramic tour straight from the airport. Nestled beside it's 4 km's of golden beaches, we'll take you through the old and the new, from the famous Gothic quarter with its narrow streets, packed with history, to the 'modernist' works of the Sagrada Familia – the unfinished masterpiece of Antoni Gaudi.

day 2 Sports day

Let the games begin as we start our visit to some of the most important sporting venues in the city. First to Montjuich Mountain and the Olympic Stadium - the venue of the 1992 Olympic and Paralympic Games and the Palau Sant Jordi, (designed by the architect Arata Isozaki) and considered the most unusual work in the Montjuich Olympic Ring.

For the football fanatics, experience the excitement of the Barça Museum, considered the best footballing museum in the world and also the most popular of its kind in Catalonia. Our guide will take you through the players changing rooms, down the tunnel and onto the pitch itself, so don't forget to bring your camera!!! All this then on for a great lunch of local dishes in a typical restaurant of the region.

And how could you call it a true football weekend without going to a football match... ? So get ready to witness the incredible talents of players such as Ronaldhino, and join the local supporters for a game between FC Barcelona and one of the Spanish league teams. An unforgettable experience!!!
