Group travel

Keen on rivers, parks and birds?

day 1 Seville - Panoramic visit

Arrival at the airport, through immigration and then on to visit the Square of Spain, site of the Ibeamerican Exposition of 1929 and the Maria Luisa Park. Then continue on foot to tour the Jewish district of Santa Cruz, before we continue along on along the river Guadalquivir, to the Golden Tower, the bull-ring in front of the Triana district and then reach the ancient Expo site of 1992, now a theme park. We finish the day at the Macarena church with a Fried Fish dinner.

Transfer to the hotel and free time.

day 2 Seville - El Rocío (Huelva)

Breakfast and departure to El Rocío. The Village is situated in the marshes of the Guadalquivir River and is built up around an ancient settlement with its sandy streets and houses complete with stables. On the way to the village, we cross through the Natural Park of Doñana, a protected area with its magnificent Mediterranean woods. We follow the same route taken in ancient times by pilgrims on their way to El Rocío. Lunch is taken at the Village Rocío Restaurant.

In the evening we'll take a "Tapa's trail" for dinner in typical restaurants and bars of Seville.

Return to the hotel.

day 3 Seville - Doñana National Park

Breakfast and departure from the hotel to the Donana National park. We'll take a four hour Land Rover tour of the park, which is the first ecological site of its kind in Europe, focused on the protection of migratory birds. The park is a refuge for such rare species as the pardel lynx, imperial eagle, greater Flamingo, ferruginous duck and the azure-winged magpie.

Lunch at a restaurant in El Rocío.

Transfer to dinner and a Flamenco show at a local Hacienda.

Return to the the hotel and free time.

day 4 Seville - Veta la Palma

Veta la Palma estate is the centre-point of the Guadalquivir Marshes. The number of birds living on the location has increased so much, that – according to the official ornithological reports - Veta La Palma is currently the most important privately owned sanctuary for aquatic birds throughout Europe.

We can also organize an optional evening horse show in the bull ring, showing the main points of the bull trials.

Lunch in private restaurant.

Dinner in a typical and genuine Hacienda.

day 5 Departure

Buffet breakfast. Free time and transfer to the airport.
